

NSBE & BDPA presents

The Corporate Commute

Why didn't my manager give me eye contact when I spoke up in the meeting yesterday?

The department chair asked me to lead the ad hoc committee so why do two of my committee members insist on reporting back to the department chair and not to me?

Phil got the promotion even though I have been with the company longer; why?

Join the National Society of Black Engineers and the Black Data Processing Associates as we discuss the tough questions that we all face... on the Corporate Commute.
